

Albany Behavioral Health Services

721 Madison Avenue * Albany, NY 12208
Tel: (518) 729-2126 * Fax: (518) 729-2127

Angela Lewin is a community activist for social justice and change, founder and president of Albany Behavioral Health Services, with a continued commitment to serving individuals who are on the periphery of social, economic and healthcare justice, to include those with substance use disorders. With over 40 years of experience as a leader in the Healthcare and Human Services field, her expertise are in the areas of trainings on a wide variety of topic and subject matters, program research and development, program re-structuring, implementation, Healthcare compliance and evaluation.

She is proficient in knowledge and interpretation of governmental regulations with emphasis on systems organization, and policy development. Other specialties include leadership in HIV, substance use disorders, treatment and management/training, environment of care management, grants development/management, and Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organization preparation (JCAHO).

Affiliations:

Certified Mediator with the Unified Court System

Intervention Specialist

Member of the Albany County Law Enforcement Assistance Diversion Program (LEAD)

Publications and Presentations:

Ms. Lewin has publication on the Medical-Social-Ethical-Legal implications of testing newborns for HIV. “Public Policy vs. Private Rights” 1994; “Outreach and Metropolis”

Ms. Lewin is a senior manager, Founder and President of Albany Behavioral Health Services, Certified Chemical Dependency Counselor; NYS OASAS Training Provider; Compliance Officer; Peer and Recovery Coach Trainer.

Additional information can be obtained at: www.albanybehavioralhealthllc.com