

Aisha A. Muhammad, LMSW, CASAC-T, CRPA, CARC, NYCPS, Chief Empowerment Officer and Trainer of Peer Recovery Professionals at Tauheed Center for Human Excellence, Inc. A 20 year history of working in prevention and treatment in the substance use disorders field. An Approved OASAS Education and Training Provider. A member of the NYCB and vested in the success of peers of the same or similar life experiences and life disruptions, helping and teaching each other in regaining meaningful lives through recovery for nearly 18 years.

NYS 2015 - 2016 Certified Recovery Peer Advocate of the Year: First Recipient of the CRPA- OASAS Commissioner's Award.

Tauheed Center for Human Excellence, Inc. (TCFHE) is a faith-based 501.c3 and began working with the formerly incarcerated Muslim in 2005 and has extended its work with emphasis on the mental health and substance use disorder communities at-large since 2012. TCFHE is a Home and Community Based Service designated to offer: Psychosocial Rehabilitation, Habilitation, Family Support and Training and Peer Empowerment services. Also, through the TCFHE Training Academy we are prepared to mentor individuals through the classroom experience, offer practical hands on opportunities/internship and assistance with employment, exam preparation, and certification. We also provide renewal hours: CRPA, CARC, NYCPS, and CASAC.

Website: <http://www.tauheedcenter.org>

Email: tauheedmakesense@gmail.com
