

Amanda M. Slagter, AAB, CRPA is a person in sustained recovery and currently working as a CRPA at ALBA De Vida/Promesa Inc. located in Buffalo NY. She has a associates degree in Paralegal Studies and applied business. Amanda was a paralegal for the Jacobs Legal Group in Cleveland OH.

Since entering recovery from substance use disorder in 2012, Amanda was the House manager and fundraising coordinator for the Genesis House of Olean NY homeless shelter. Also the office manager and volunteer coordinator for Wider Opportunities of Greater Olean.

In 2015 she became the Recovery Coach coordinator at CARES, Council on Addiction Recovery Services, Olean NY. In that role she became a trainer of the CCAR curriculums The Recovery Coach Academy, Ethics and Spirituality.

Amanda has been training the CCAR curriculums and assisting individuals in the NYS peer certification process since 2016.

She is an approved OASAS education and training provider and an advocate for those on MAT.

She has received the Zonta Club of Olean's Women of Excellence Award and successfully opened the Oxford House of Olean in 2017.

Contact info- Amanda Slagter, 716-801-1242, amandaslagter79@gmail.com.