

PARSE Research Agenda Formation Survey Results

INTEREST RESULTS

5/10 Interested in the Call to Action Letter

6/10 Interested in the Research Project/Focus Group

3/10 selected 'Maybe' interested

3/10 Interested in the Comprehensive Literature Review

4/10 selected 'Maybe' interested

Research Studies | General Research Aims

- Cultural/structural challenges for those in recovery in the workplace
- Economic benefits of RRW
- Assessments/case studies of successful initiatives
- Forthcoming relative legislation/policy
  - Documenting its impact
- Documenting process of establishing recovery friendly workplace programs
- Documenting the impact on workers' health and working conditions of such programs
- Efficacy of recovery supports and services on sustaining health/wellness among people who have/currently use drugs
- Three sets of long-term data (general categories):
  - 1) the impacts of successful employment on the recovery workforce
  - 2) the impacts of a supported recovery workforce on retention, productivity, and HR resources.
  - 3) the impact of SEL-focused prevention strategies on workplace culture and stigma reduction

---

Comprehensive Literature Review Focus

- Determine what is most urgent/needed; establish sense of gaps
  - Policy implementation
  - gap analysis, solidifying understanding of the evidence base RFW efficacy, understanding the evidence base for efficacy of what's considered to be best practice policies in this space
  - Extent and nature of recovery friendly workplaces
  - Impacts on workers' health and working conditions of such programs
  - Efficacy of recovery supports and services on sustaining health/wellness among people who have/currently use drugs
  - Impact of SEL-focused prevention strategies on workplace culture and stigma reduction
-

Contact / Further Information

An inventory meeting will go out soon for those who expressed interested (responded Yes or Maybe).

For those who may be interested now, please reach out to:
Mabel.Valencia-Yang@downstate.edu

